Aural Histories Concert - Friday 12th September 2025, 7.30pm - c.8.30pm at Holy Trinity Church (Free admission with refreshments provided after the concert)

Holy Trinity Church, Coventry and the Aural Histories: Coventry 1451-1642 project, based at Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, warmly invite you to attend the closing concert of this three-year research project, which has been investigating the experience of music in the Coventry's lost performance spaces.

The concert will take place in Holy Trinity Church on Friday 12th September 2025 at 7.30pm and will last approximately one hour. The concert is free for all. Refreshments will be provided after. The Choir of Holy Trinity Church, directed by Alexander Norman, will be joined by members of His Majesty's Sagbutts and Cornetts and the Binchois Consort to present a programme of music from two turbulent centuries of English history. The performance will be accompanied by visual imagery depicting Holy Trinity Church, St Michael's Parish Church (the old cathedral), and St Mary's Guildhall as they may have appeared at key points in time between 1451 and 1642.

This event gives us the opportunity to celebrate a wonderfully fruitful collaboration between Holy Trinity Church and Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, and we would be delighted to see you there.

In addition, the Aural Histories project will host a launch event for a smartphone app developed as part of the research in the School Room at Trinity House on Thursday 11th September 2025 at 6pm. The event is primarily intended to publicise the app amongst the heritage, tourism, and cultural sectors in Coventry and explore ways in which Coventry organisations may benefit from this work. If you would be interested in attending, you would be more than welcome. Mission Focus, September 2025: Coffee Tots

COFFEE TOTS 2025

Coffee Tots is a Christian organisation which helps parents to be more joyful and confident in raising their children, especially when they are finding the task lonely or challenging. It is based within the Wave Waterpark café, and many people from Holy Trinity have worked or volunteered with them. Staff and volunteers offer love, support and friendship while encouraging the parents to play, read and engage with their children, to improve the parent/child relationship as well as the child's development. Sessions are also held to help parents with issues such as relationship breakdown, poor mental or physical health, financial struggles or domestic violence. Coffee Tots received the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service in 2016. We will have an update at the morning services on September 14th.

The Light House needs you 🌟 - Emergency Appeal

The Light House, one of HTC's mission partners is sad to report that after almost 40 years of serving the community, they may be forced to close their doors by the end of 2025.

Since 1986, The Light House has stood upon the promise of Isaiah 61:1, providing affordable, accessible, and high-quality counselling to those who need it, believing that healing and restoration are part of God's redemptive plan for every life. They hold fast to the conviction that mental health care should never be a privilege reserved for the few, but a lifeline extended to all, especially the vulnerable and the weary especially with NHS services under immense pressure and demand far outstripping supply, their role has become more vital than ever.

Your support, whether financial or prayerful, and your contribution, no matter the size, will help ensure that the most vulnerable continue to receive care marked by dignity, compassion, and faith.
