New Warden

Paul Doggett was elected as our 4th Warden at the Extraordinary Parishioners' Meeting held last Sunday, 15 February at 11am.

Paul says:

"I am honoured to be elected as Warden again, after doing a stint as Warden between 2014 and 2020. I have been a regular at the 09.30 service for many years and also have served on PCC, including currently being a Diocesan and Deanery Synod representative. I also look after the sound system and occasionally fill in other roles such as Verger. I look forward to serving the church as Warden and, hopefully, also doing some more strategic planning alongside the rest of the Wardens and Clergy".

Exploring faith

The group meets again this Tuesday, 6pm to 8pm, starting with a light meal, followed by discussion of: How can I have faith?

Still a good week to join. Please speak to Revd Richard or Justin/Blessy or Siby/Richard L/Margaret B.

HTC Mission focus for Feb 2026; Coventry Street Pastors

Coventry street pastors are volunteers from many local churches, who work with people enjoying the city centre club night-life, from 9pm to 2am on Fridays and Saturdays. The pastors are welcomed and endorsed by the police, city council and business community. They are known as 'flip-flop pastors' providing simple footwear to those who can't manage to walk in their fancy shoes, or 'lollipop pastors' when they offer tokens of love and relief to distressed youngsters at the end of a night out. They bring a Christian presence, a listening ear, warm safe spaces, drinks and all manner of tender loving care. Where appropriate they share about Jesus and pray with people. Emmanuel Vasanthakumar, a member of HTC and often to be seen around the AV desk at the back of church, is a member of the team; they are looking for more volunteers to become street pastors, so if interested, speak to him,

There will be a presentation by Coventry Street Pastors in church on Sunday Feb 22nd.

Recital in Church

On Saturday 21st February at 1.00pm we welcome to Holy Trinity local organist John Wilderspin for his first recital here. Admission is of course free.

His attractive programme includes major works by J.S. Bach. Please come along to give John a special HT welcome.

Moreover, bring a friend or two!
